Donna Becht to speak to Rotary Club of San Carlos

The Parks & Recreation Department is responsible for managing the San Carlos Healthy Cities Tutoring Program.

Using grant funding from the State, City and School District resources, our Healthy Cities Program is providing new services to the community.

Healthy Cities School Tutoring Program

The Healthy Cities Program is a unique City, School & Community Partnership.

The Healthy Cities Tutoring Program is improving the education of our city's children through a tutoring program. Volunteers from the community are paired with students in the San Carlos

School District to assist with homework, reading & writing, organization, and mentoring. The commitment is just one hour a week and you can make a huge difference in the life of a child. Join us and become a Volunteer Tutor!

For more information about the Healthy Cities Tutoring Program, or to find out how you can get involved please contact Donna Becht at (650) 802-4319 or

The San Carlos Healthy Cities School Tutoring Program is a volunteer-based tutoring program offered to students in the San Carlos elementary and middle schools.

Tutors provide one-on-one help to kindergarten through eighth grade youngsters at Arundel, Brittan Acres, Heather and White Oaks elementary schools, as well as at Central and Tierra Linda middle schools and the Charter Learning Center.

Ask Yourself...

* Do you like children?

* Can you spare one hour a week to make a difference in the life of a child?

If so, please consider attending the upcoming Fall 2007 Tutor Training Session and become a volunteer tutor with the San Carlos Healthy Cities Tutoring Program.

Last year volunteer tutors worked with 225 students in seven San Carlos schools and gave them the important one-on-one help that can make such a difference in a child's success.

Volunteers are needed again this year. Tutors meet with their student once a week, for approximately 45 minutes and provide one-on-one support.

Volunteers receive instruction on how to tutor before they are matched with a child and the child's teacher will give you guidance and instruction as well.

If you would like more information, please call Donna Becht, Healthy Cities Program Coordinator at (650) 802-4319 or e-mail at dbecht@cityofsancarlos.org.

The San Carlos Service Clubs for Seniors (SCSCS) needs money. The $450.00/mo. supplied by Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs (@$150 ea.) is sufficient to purchase the groceries we supply to needy Seniors on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month.

However, it is not enough to pay the insurance and the year-end Holiday gifts we have traditionally given each of the last 18 years.

Therefore, the SCSCS board is going to the individual members of our three clubs for donations. This will avoid asking, at this time, for an increase from the clubs.

Within the month, you will receive a letter asking for your help; please respond positively.
