To the Members of the Rotary Club of San Carlos

For the past year I have had the pleasure of working with you in an effort to support many of the worthwhile causes that were in need of our help.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you, and especially my Board of Directors, who worked so diligently on all of our activities and programs. I feel that due to our combined efforts, we had a very successful year.

Please join me in supporting and wishing our new Rotary President, Claire Earley, the best of luck. Hopefully we had fun and learned something about "Service above Self."

Again, I sincerely appreciate all the support you have given to me. See you at our Friday meeting at the Van's, my last official meeting. Then comes Saturday's debunking. (I hear they are having a hard time with material.)
You truly are the Best Club,
Mark Burket
